²The reasons need not be made accessible if they amount to more than 5,000 characters in total.

(3) Where several stockholders propose countermotions regarding one and the same item of business to be resolved upon, the management board may combine the counter-motions and the reasons specified for them.

(4) ¹In the case of a virtual Annual General Meeting, motions which must be made accessible in accordance with subsections 1 to 3 will be deemed to have been made at the time they are made accessible. ²The company must ensure that shareholders are able to exercise their voting rights on these motions as soon as they are able to prove that they meet the legal or statutory requirements for exercising their voting rights. ³If the shareholder who has submitted the motion is not duly authorized and, if registration is required, has not duly registered for the Annual General Meeting, the motion does not have to be addressed at the meeting

Section 127 AktG Nominations by Shareholders (excerpt)

3. Right to submit statements pursuant to Section 130a para. (1) to (4), para. (6) AktG

Shareholders who have duly registered for the Annual General Meeting or their proxies have the right to submit statements on the items on the agenda no later than five days before the meeting, not including the day of receipt and the day of the Annual General Meeting, i.e., by June 13, 2024, 24:00 hours.

The submission must be made in text form via the Investor Portal. Statements will not be translated by the Company. We request that the scope of statements be limited to an appropriate level to enable shareholders to properly review the statements. A maximum length of 10,000 characters should serve as a guidance.

The Company will make the statements available to the registered shareholders or their proxies in the Investor Portal by no later than four days before the meeting, i.e., by June 14, 2024, 24:00 hours (midnight), stating the name of the submitting shareholder. Statements may not be made accessible if they contain more than 10,000 characters (including spaces), are offensive, criminally relevant, obviously false or misleading or if the shareholder indicates that they will not attend the Annual General Meeting and will not be represented (Section 130a para. of objections to resolutions of the Annual General Meeting are only possible in the ways described separately in this invitation. In particular, the opportunity to submit statements does not constitute an opportunity to submit questions (in advance) in accordance with Section 131 para. (1a) AktG. Any questions contained in the statements will therefore not be answered in the virtual Annual General Meeting, unless they are presented as part of the right to speak at the Annual General Meeting.

The provision of Section 130a para. (1) to (4), (6) AktG on which these rights to submit comments are based reads in part as follows:

(1e) AktG may form part of the speech.

In accordance with Section 18 para. (3) of the Company's Articles of Association, the Chairman of the meeting may impose reasonable time limits on the shareholder's right to ask questions and speak. In particular, at the beginning or during the Annual General Meeting, he is entitled to set a reasonable time frame for the entire course of the Annual General Meeting, for the discussion of the individual agenda items and for the individual questions and speeches. In order to exercise their right to speak, shareholders or their proxies require an internet-enabled device (PC, laptop, tablet or smartphone) with a camera and microphone that can be accessed from the browser.

Section 131 para.
