

Curriculum vitae I Janis Zech

Janis Zech, born on September 26, 1984, graduated from the University of Witten/Herdecke, Germany in 2008 and holds a B.A. degree in Economics.

From 2008 to 2009, Janis Zech worked as an Entrepreneur in Residence at Team Europe Ventures Management GmbH.

In 2009, he co-founded Fyber GmbH, where he was responsible for product, business, operations and strategy until 2017. After selling the company in 2014, he was a member of the executive team of Fyber N.V. until 2017. Janis Zech also founded Tic Ventures GmbH in 2009, where he acts as managing director, investor and advisor for technology startups.

Since 2016, Janis Zech is Venture Partner at Point Nine Management GmbH, where he focuses on investing in technology startups and advising portfolio companies.

In 2018, Janis Zech founded NewCo Labs GmbH, where he focuses on founding and scaling technology startups.

Further material activities

Membership in other supervisory boards:

None

Membership in comparable supervising bodies in German or foreign corporations:

adsquare GmbH (member of the advisory board)

Remerge GmbH (member of the advisory board)

Stoyo Media GmbH (member of the advisory board)

Management positions and partnerships:

NewCo Labs GmbH (managing director)

Tic Ventures GmbH (managing director)

KJREH IV GmbH (managing director)

KJREH V GmbH (managing director)

Sonnenallee 44 GmbH (managing director)

Vielitz Wohnen GmbH (managing director)